

Program for the children

★ Registrations for the children's program will close on Friday 17 April 2009. Seats are limited: register early.

"Faith Alone"

Learning BIG truths about Jesus and making friends with others is not just for the adults. It is for the kids too!

Our hope is that your children will benefit from this year's convention as much as you will. And we hope that they will beg you to come back in 2010.

Your young people – in years 8-12 at school – will be invited to join the adult program in the main auditorium.

Andrew Campbell

Andrew is married to Anne, and is the father of 4 and grandfather of 16 (and counting). Andrew pastors one of the Presbyterian churches in Wagga Wagga, NSW.

He loves boiling a billy in the Australian bush and creating useful things in his shed. He recently survived a high-speed motorcycle crash.

Armed with his six foot tall Bible, Andrew will be teaching the children what it means to be saved by faith alone. The children can expect plenty of noise, colour, drama, passion – and a healthy dose of the unexpected.

Morning Program

10:45am to 12:00pm on Sat

9:00am to 12:00pm on Sun & Mon

Doors will open 15 minutes before the program starts.

18 months to pre-school

The pre-school program will cater for children from 18 months to school age. There will be Bible stories, music, singing, and lots of toys.

Appropriate adult supervision will be provided – so you are free to sit in the main auditorium and enjoy the program.

School years K to 7

The main program will cater for school age children from Kindergarten to year 7, and will include a Bible learning time, music and singing, indoor games and craft. The Bible talks will be given by Andrew Campbell.

To facilitate the smooth running of the program, parents are asked to note the following:

- Please ensure your children wash their hands prior to delivering them to the program.
- Morning tea will be served as a part of the program.
- Please collect your children before lunch. Lunches are included in the registration fee. If you need to bring food for your child's special diet, please note it on the form.

Evening Program

7:00pm to 8:00pm Sat and Sun

Doors will open 15 minutes before the program starts.

The program will cater for school age children from Kindergarten to year 7, and will include a Bible learning time, music and singing, and indoor games. The Bible talks will be given by Andrew Campbell.

All leaders and volunteers will hold a Qld govt blue card and will follow the www.ChildSafe.org.au guidelines.

To make CQCC a successful convention, we need your help.

- Please fill out the feedback form (located in the back of the convention booklet). We will use your comments to make the convention a success in years to come.

About the convention

Central Queensland Christian Convention (CQCC) is a watershed ministry for people from all backgrounds and denominations in our region. Previously most Christian conventions and other major Christian events have been held in the south east corner of Queensland.

Now Central Queenslanders have an opportunity to enjoy great Bible teaching from conference-quality speakers without having to travel to Brisbane!

CQCC aims to deliver Bible teaching that is faithful, relevant, clear, and (most importantly) Christ-centred.

CQCC aims to encourage people to live for Jesus. We hope that the convention will be used by Christians and churches to network and fellowship with one another, as well as be a place where people can hear and respond to the great news of God's Son, Jesus Christ.

CQCC is a non-profit ministry, and is non-denominational in outlook. Since we are one in Christ Jesus, we would love you and your church to come and be a part of the very first gathering of Central Queensland Christian Convention.

Phil Campbell

Phil is married to Louise, and they have four adult kids aged between 18 and 25.

Phil leads the ministry team at Mitchelton Presbyterian Church on Brisbane's northside, as they work to nurture a network of clear, Christ-centred churches in the area.

Phil is passionate about good de-caffè cappuccino, good graphic design, and good acoustic guitars. He is still coming to terms with the fact that April marks his 50th birthday.

Phil will be giving us the New Testament perspective on "Faith Alone", particularly from Galatians.

"Faith Alone"

Our first convention is being held this year over the May long weekend: Saturday 2 to Monday 4 May, at St Andrews Presbyterian church, 51 Denham Street, Rockhampton.

Our theme for this year's convention will be "Faith Alone".

We want to learn and understand the teaching of the Bible: that justification (the declaration that someone is right with God) is by grace alone through faith alone because of Christ alone.

We have asked a couple of Aussie preachers to come to our backyard.

These men have spoken at other well-known conventions in Australia. We look forward to hearing from God's word and we look forward to seeing and meeting you at CQCC 2009.

For more information about CQCC, please visit our website at cqcc.org.au or contact one of the organisers.

Anthony Petterson

Anthony is married to Megan and they have two sets of twins – Luke & Emma (13) and Sophie and Hugh (10).

He teaches Old Testament at Morling College in Sydney. Before that he was pastor of Hornsby Heights Baptist Church in Sydney and then associate pastor at Grosvenor Road Baptist Church in Dublin, Ireland for four years. While overseas he did a PhD on the messianic hope in the book of Zechariah.

Anthony is also active in ministry at Macquarie Baptist Church (next to Macquarie Uni). He enjoys orienteering, fishing, jazz music and watching his kids play sport.

Anthony will be helping us to understand the doctrine of "Faith Alone" as revealed by God in the Old Testament.
